DETAILED ACTIONResponse to Amendment

1. Applicant's After Final Declaration and accompanying remarks filed 12/19/05 have been fully considered and entered. Applicant's remarks are found persuasive to overcome the 35 U.S.C. 103(a) rejections of claims 1,2,4-10,13,and 17 as being unpatentable over Coppage, Jr., US 5,660,913 in view of Thomas et al., US 2003/0022583 A1. As such, pending claims 1-17 are found allowable for reasons set forth herein below.

Allowable Subject Matter

2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: Claims 1-17 are allowable.

Specifically, claim 1 is found allowable because the closest cited prior art of Coppage, Jr., does not teach or fairly suggest providing a stack of woven layers and at least one non-woven batting layer on the face of said stack woven layers wherein the non-woven layer is attached to and entangled with the stack of woven layers by needlepunching. The prior art of Coppage, Jr., only teaches providing a plurality of carded tow or felt layers which may or may not be needlepunched. In the instant case, it is the position of the Examiner that a carded tow or felt layer does not meet the limitation of a non-woven batting (battings are usually loosely bonded fibers). Additionally, Coppage, Jr., does not teach attaching the non-woven layer to the woven layers such that the non-woven layer is entangled with the woven layers. Instead, Coppage, Jr., teaches resin impregnating the layers together. Applicant's remarks regarding the inability to needlepunch resin impregnated layers because the needle barbs would break was found persuasive. As such, there is no motivation to combine Coppage, Jr., with Thomas et al.

An updated art search did not produce any new substantial art for which to base a rejection and there is no motivation to combine references to form an obviousness type rejection.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
